Spotlight On...

At Bells we're proud to work with an amazing range and variety of clients, from small start-ups to established large businesses. To help facilitate introductions, we're inviting our clients to share what they do and how they help their customers. This month we'd like to introduce a business specialising in handling insurance disputes.

Fenchurch Law (through Movo Insurance Brokers)

Free legal support with your insurance policy; Fenchurch Law (FL) is an award-winning, specialist firm and are one of the UK's leading teams of insurance disputes specialists. Regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority, Fenchurch Law only act for policyholders, never insurers.

Fenchurch are offering a unique free legal service to support policyholders with insurance disputes. This means free legal advice on policyholders' legal rights, obligations directly relating to an insurance policy as well as the costs of litigation/arbitration of a dispute with an Insurer. Subject to Fenchurch Law concluding that the policyholder has at least a 60% chance of succeeding in its claim, in which case Unlimited covers all the costs of that claim.
